Requesting Exception to Official Travel Warnings

PRO-U2105.01A REQUESTING EXCEPTION TO OFFICIAL TRAVEL WARNINGS

The University's policy titled POL-U2105.01 TRAVELING OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES requires Travel Leaders (defined in the policy) and students to comply with 1) U.S. State Department Travel Warnings and Travel Alerts and 2) Centers for Disease Control (CDC) Travel Health Warnings. However, Travel Leaders may request an exception to this provision from the Provost (or an appropriate Vice President) based on program needs. Student(s) traveling independently may propose an exception to their Travel Leader for the Travel Leader's handling under this procedure.

Action by:Action:

Student (see note*)

1. A student who is doing independent study abroad, including internships, may propose an exception to the student's Travel Leader. However, Travel Leader must agree to endorse the request and complete this procedure starting with action item 2. If not endorsed, Travel Leader advises student accordingly and procedure ends here.

*NOTE: Action item 1 only applies to students who are doing independent study abroad, including internships. Otherwise, start at action item 2.

Travel Leader

2. Researches and evaluates the specific risks outlined in official travel warnings, develops plans to mitigate those risks, completes the Requesting Exception to Official Travel Warnings form and attaches supporting documentation.
