

FRM-U2100.05A Nominating a Candidate for an Honorary Doctoral Degree
Western Washington University

The following form represents the content of the online form to completed and submitted following [this link.]

To be filled out by a WWU employee, student, or advisory board member when nominating an individual for an honorary doctoral degree. This is a confidential process.

Nominator's Name _____

Nominator's Email _____

Nominee's Name _____

At least one of the following criteria must be satisfied:

- a) Outstanding original and creative accomplishments in arts, letters, sciences or professions.
- b) Unusual and fruitful service to humanity.
- c) Distinguished career in education, government, business, public service, or in humanitarian endeavors that advance society.
- d) Highly effective leadership on behalf of public education, social justice and the environment and other signature values of Western.

Please indicate which of the criteria above the candidate satisfies: _____

Brief overview statement as to why the person is being nominated (1 paragraph to 1 page).

Please provide detailed information supporting the nomination that could include but is not limited to the following (no more than 10 pages):

- A description of accomplishments, including their originality or exceptional nature
- A bibliography, discography, or similar list, if applicable
- References to citations of the individual's accomplishments, service, leadership, etc.

This information should allow the evaluators to make an informed decision whether to recommend the individual for an honorary doctoral degree.